 Program Report

National Service Scheme, Department of Marathi in collaboration of Internal Quality Assurance Cell organised 1942 freedom struggle and G. D. (Bapu) Lad on 18th November 2022 at Rayat Shikshan Sanstha's Dr. Patangrao Kadam Mahavidyalaya, Ramanandnagar (Burli) under presidency of CDC member Mr. J. K. Jadhav (Bapu). Prof. Dr. Raja Malagi was invited as resource person.

Hon. MLA Dr. Arun Lad stated that the Satara anti-government movement under the leadership of Krantsinh Nana Patil, nailed the British government. G. D. Bapu Lad tried his best to bring justice to the common people. G. D. Bapu and all his fellow revolutionaries were committed to the movement. Resource Person on this occasion Prof. Dr. Raja Malgi Narrated the exciting history of the independence movement, He said "Under the leadership of Krantsinh Nana Patil and revolutionary G. D. The heroic performance of Bapu Lad and Krantiveer Nagnath Anna Nayakwadi has made the Satara anti-government movement a golden page in the history of freedom movement." This movement was supported by the uprising of revolutionary Umaji Naik, Mahatma Gandhi's movement from 1930 and earlier Shivaji Maharaj's Hindavi Swaraj, the values that the movement gave for the salvation of the Bahujans, the centralization of power, wealth and knowledge came into the hands of the Bahujans. Satara anti-government movement was working for that. In fact, the anti-government movement, which had been working for forty-eight months, had created enough threat in mind of British Empire."

On this occasion, Principal Dr. T. S. Bhosle expressed preliminary of the session. Prof. Baban Patil introduced the guests. Dr. Kakasaheb Bhosle thanked, while Dr. Tejas Chavan and Prof. Swati Magdum compered the session.
