'Parent Meet'

2023-2024

The meet of the parents was held at the Audio-Visual Hall of the college on 30th December, 2023. This meet was organized by the Department of English in collaboration with Internal Quality Assurance Cell. The main objective of this meet is to share various student centric activities conducted by the college for its students. Besides, this interaction provides an opportunity to parents to contribute in college development by giving valuable suggestions and feedback.

The meet began with the welcome address by I/C Principal Prof. (Dr.) U.V. Patil. In her address she highlighted different activities and programmes conducted in college campus for students' holistic development. Further, she added that the college administration is committed to provide all the necessary facilities to students for their academic development. The programme was ended with the talk delivered by a few parents consisting an expression of gratitude to college administration and teacher fraternity. These remarks by parents also include a few suggestions and feedback for overall development of college.

Outcomes

1. Parents got acquainted with educational activities carried in college.
2. College received valuable suggestions and feedback through parents interaction.
