Report of Voting Awareness Drive

On the occasion of National Voter's Day on January 25, 2023, college students were educated about the importance of voting. A sixth voter registration form was gathered from all pupils who had reached the age of 18. All students were advised to vote confidently in order to strengthen democracy. Students were made aware that voting is a national accomplishment. On this day, senior citizens in the Ramanandnagar neighborhood were honored. The talk was completed with a discussion of voter participation in democracy. The chief guest was Prof. Madhukar Joshi. Dr. T.S. Bhosale I/c. Principal was in attendance. Vice Principal Dr. K.B. Bhosale was also present. The program was co-organized by the Department of Political Science, the National Cadet Corps, and the National Service Scheme.

Outcomes:

Awareness about voting increased,
everyone decided to vote.

Beneficiaries:

All the students from college, Teachers,
Non Teaching staff.
