Report of Blood Donation Drive

College at Ramanandnagar (Burli), named for late MLA Dr. Patangrao Kadam to commemorate the 79th birthday of Patangrao Kadam Saheb, a blood donation drive was held. Mahendra (Appa) Lad, director of the Sangli District Central Bank, started the blood drive on the occasion, noting the importance of holding the drive in honor of Dr. Patangrao Kadam Saheb's 79th birthday and the greatness of his work. On this occasion, the National Cadet Corps, National Service Scheme, Gymkhana, volunteers, athletes, students, instructors, and non-teaching staff were there. The college's principal, Dr. T. S. Bhosale, the vice principal, Lt. Sandesh Daunde, and the vice principal, Dr. KB Bhosale, were also there. A successful camp was made possible by the blood donations of 55 college students. The camp was organized through Adarsh Blood Centre Sangli.

Outcomes:
 The donors showed positive effects like a sense of satisfaction after the blood donation.
