Report of 'Celebration of Constitution Day'

The 26th of November 2022 was Constitution Day, which was observed in colleges. The Principal adored the Constitution in this situation. Each student participated in a group reading of the constitution. The Constitution was read out by Dr. Sachin Chavan, the head of the Political Science Department, and by all of the students at the time. There were many people at this program from the college's entire student body, as well as teachers and non-teaching personnel. The National Cadet Corps, National Service Scheme and Gymkhana Department jointly oversaw the coordination of this program.

Outcomes:

Recognize the significance of the constitution for the welfare of the nation.

Beneficiaries:

150 students of the college and all the teaching & Non-teaching staff.

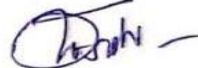

Presence of Teaching & Non-teaching staff for Constitution reading.
