'Women empowerment through Strengthening Self Help Group'

On Tuesday 22.11.2022 outreach program for Self Help Group (SHG) was conducted by the Department of Commerce on the subject 'Women empowerment through Strengthening Self Help Group'. SHG is a group of women who come together for the purpose of economic and social empowerment. These groups are usually formed by women from similar backgrounds or communities, and they work together to achieve common goals.

A program was conducted for Women empowerment through Strengthening Self Help Group with the aim of providing them with the necessary skills and knowledge to improve their economic situation. The program was designed to be interactive and participatory, with a focus on group activities and discussions.

The program began with an introduction to the concept of SHGs and their importance in the economic and social empowerment of women. This was followed by sessions on financial management, including budgeting, saving, and investment. The ladies were also taught about micro-enterprise development and how to start and manage small businesses.

In addition, the program included sessions on health and nutrition, with a focus on the importance of maintaining good health for economic productivity. The SHG were also taught about their legal rights and how to access legal services.

The program was well-received by the participants, who found the information and skills provided to be useful and relevant to their daily lives. Many of the women reported that they had already begun to put the knowledge they gained into practice.

Overall, the program succeeded in providing them with the necessary skills and knowledge to improve their economic situation. The program helped the SHG women to gain confidence and become more self-sufficient, and it also helped to foster a sense of community and support among the group.
